

Who Can Ever Know the Feeling

Comfort in Trials — By Closer Fellowship with the Lord

1. Who can ever know the feeling deep down in my heart? Who can really understand my weakness to sustain? When I have lost hope to carry on by myself, Your person stands by me to be my hope and life. (C) Your love so deep moving and sweet How can I still stubborn be; No more I struggle and strive, Trust in Your faith and rest in Your breast.

Chorus

2. When I feel the touch of Your hand upon my life,
I sense the flow of life flowing rich and free;
When You wipe away every tear in my eyes,
Sorrow has depart'd, behold a smiling face!
