

We Do Not Lose Heart

Comfort in Trials — By Gain from Suffering

(Guitar: Capo 1)

1. We are pressed on ev - 'ry side; un - a - ble to find a way out; Per - se - cut - ed and cast down; Ev - ery suf - fring in our na - tu - ral man is an - oth - er op - por - tu - ni - ty For our in - ner man to de - vel - op and be re - newed.

Chorus
(C) So we do not lose heart though our out - er man is de - cay - ing; We do not lose heart for our in - ner man is being re - newed day by day; And we do not re - gard the tem - po - rar - y things which are seen But the things which are not seen which are e - ter - nal.

2. Nour - ish me, Lord, in my suf - frings with a fresh sup - ply; Re - new me day by day with re - sur - rec - tion life. Ev - ery suf - fring in my na - tu - ral man is an - oth - er op - por - tu - ni - ty For Your life and re - sur - rec - tion to be re - leased. Chorus
(C) So we do

Bridge
We are pressed on ev - ery side; Un - a - ble to find a way out; Per - se - cut - ed And cast down For our mo - men - tar - y light - ness of af - flic - tion works out for us More and more sur - pass - ing - ly an e - ter - nal weight of glo - ry. Chorus
(C) So we do

Ending
But the things which are not seen— which are e - ter - nal,
Which are e - ter - nal, Which are e - ter - nal.
