

God is Longing for His Ultimate Move

Hope of Glory — Preparing for Christ's Return

1. The high gos - pel's been preached; the high truth's been re - leased. But we still sense a lack; is this all that God needs?
This He longs for to - day: some who'd whole-heart - ed - ly
Give the ground for Christ to live in them in - trin - si - c'ly.

Chorus
(C) God is long - ing for His ul - ti - mate move, That
He and we would be one e - ter - nal - ly.
"Lord, these days are the con - sum - ma - tion of the age.
Lord, in these days re - kin - dle our love to - ward You."

The musical score is written in treble clef with a common time signature (C). It features a series of chords (C, G, Am, F) and includes triplet markings (3) over certain notes. The lyrics are aligned with the notes on a five-line staff.

2. As the Body of Christ, we would all let Him grow,
From our spirit expand, from our heart overflow;
Thus, we'll build up the church and make ready the Bride;
Thus, the kingdom life within us will be magnified.
3. Now the world stage is set and the Lord's coming soon.
He'll be not first the Judge, but our lovely Bridegroom.
As we follow the Lamb, He is mingled with us.
When He sees we've been prepared, He'll come to marry us.
4. Consummated, our God is the Spirit today.
What He needs now in us is an unhindered way.
By His Spirit transformed, matching Him, we would pray:
"Dearest One! Oh, quickly come! Make haste! Do not delay!"
