

Face to Face

Encouragement — For Fellowship with the Lord

1. There was once a time where-in just one man,
Could come close to God to be His com - pan - ion.
'Twas by the shed blood he could come bold - ly,
Drawing nigh to God, to be-hold His glo - ry!
Face to face! He met with Him there! He be - held God's form! What sweet - ness they shared!
God and man spoke in - ti - - mate - ly.
God could speak with that one man o - pen-ly.

2. God no longer dwells in His tent of old.
The spirit of man has now become His home.
When we turn our heart, unveiled is our face,
Then we meet the Lord before the throne of grace!

Face to face! Together we meet!
We are transformed from glory to glory!
Here we're one, no longer apart.
Here we see what is hidden in God's heart.
