

Treading the Pathways to Life

Encouragement — For Experiencing Christ as Life

1. There are days blue skies can't be found, When dark and gloom - y clouds are all a-round.
 Do we trea - sure God's life with - in, Or do we strug - gle on with right and wrong?
 No food, no drink, no home, no rest, no peace If we let thorns our one-ness pierce;
 If one day storm - y winds come our way, Will we then be shak-en, fall a - way?
Chorus
 (C) High-ways to life, the path our feet must tread By en - joy - ing Christ, we're

2. Life that swallows death now has come;
 'Tis Christ as our eternal portion.
 True Vine, Bread of life, all we need,
 Life's Author, even life itself indeed.
 This Tree of Life, to us a promise giv'n,
 Closed to us by the fall of man;
 Christ us redeemed, re-op'ning the way,
 Then rising, life conquered death for aye.

3. Daily eat and drink, breathe in Christ,
 Our thirst is quenched, our hunger satisfied;
 With our spirit pray, touch the Word,
 By pray'r in private, touch the living Lord.
 Confess, be dealt with for the genuine growth;
 His life in us may freely flow.
 Have more of Christ wrought into our being
 Till others receive life's watering.

4. Life results in building, we see;
 Fulfilling God's divine economy.
 God Triune is our oneness real
 One corp'rate Body's what He wants to see;
 Each one grows with the growth of God each day,
 We have real building, God display;
 The New Jerusalem we will be,
 Our glorious eternal destiny.
