1. Je - sus my Shep-herd in ten - der - ness came, Seek - ing my soul, one lost sheep to re - claim!
G Am D⁷ G
Laid down His life when He died on the tree, Now He's the ris - en One liv - ing in me!
G G⁷ C Am D G
(C) I am so glad that God dwells in me, The Tri - une God— now dwells in me!
G G⁷ C Am G D⁷ G
Oh what a day, the Tri - une God came— And now He lives in me!

2. Like a fine woman, He swept and He searched,
For one lost coin which to Him had great worth;
When by His Spirit He shined on my sin,
All night was scattered, and He entered in!

3. Once, lost in sin, from my Father I roamed,
Yet deep within I still longed for a home;
But by His mercy this prodigal sees!
I was once dead, but now God lives in me!

4. Through the Son's death, I have access to God,
Through the sweet washing of His precious blood;
One Spirit now reconciled indeed,
One with the Triune God, living in me!

5. What love divine that my God has made known,
Sinners and the Triune God find a home!
What grace bestowed to the less than the least—
Oh, hallelujah! God's living in me!
