

The Kindness of God

Assurance and Joy of Salvation — Forgiven by God

1. In Lo - de - bar, I was just lame
there, So crip - pled, so sad, and so poor.
In fear of my life with no an - swers, My fu - ture so bleak and un - sure.
Chorus
(C) "Where are you," came the sweet - est voice "I love you, I'll care for your need! Come, en - joy this feast at My ta - ble here. I have cov - ered your poor crip - pled feet."

2. This world fills my heart not with pleasure,
But hunger and much anxious care.
What joy, in the midst of my suff'ring,
My Christ came and saved me from there.

3. At first I was fearful and fled Him,
Why would He seek someone like me?
But calling my name, He disarmed me,
His voice warm, compassionate, sweet.

4. It's here I forget my condition,
And failure my standard to meet.
I see only Christ in His richness,
And worship my Lord at His feast!
