

Grant me, O Lord

Various Aspects of the Inner Life — The Proper Heart

1. Grant me, O Lord, a heart that's soft;
Re - move my heart of stone; Oh,
may I ev - er yield to You,
Take Your will for my own,
Take Your will for my own.

2. Grant me, O Lord, a heart that's pure,
That I would single be,
Your presence seeking with the saints,
Pursuing faithfully,
Pursuing faithfully.

3. Grant me, O Lord, a loving heart,
Draw me each day to turn;
Renew, refresh, rekindle, Lord,
That I for You would yearn,
That I for You would yearn.

4. Grant me, O Lord, a heart at peace
With no offense to shade
Our fellowship, in which I walk,
Where anxious thoughts are stayed,
Where anxious thoughts are stayed.

5. Our hearts establish blameless, Lord,
In holiness held fast;
The living of Your kingdom, Lord,
Bring to the earth at last,
Bring to the earth at last!
