

On My Behalf

(Guitar)

1. Death and burial did I deserve
 Life and hope came; now, Lord, You I serve. From mil - lions who are per - ish - ing, dead, You chose me, saved me to the end. (C) Lord
 Je - sus, You'll nev - er give up on me, Do - ing
 so much on my be - half.
 Now I'm en - joy - ing grace up - on grace; To
 You be all the glo - ry, thanks, and praise!

2. From this day, Lord, to eternity—
 An eternal hunger grant to me
 And a thirst unquenchable, my plea—
 That You alone, Lord, will I ever seek.

3. I'm unworthy, yet Your love reached me;
 How unchanging, Lord, You'll always be!
 You love me dearly, Lord, I can feel;
 In return, I give You back a love so real!

4. Lord, there's no one in this world like You!
 You're sweet, full of love, so charming too!
 I can't help but deeply be in love
 With You alone, oh my Beloved!

5. How dare I, Lord, to ask for more;
 Since I'm not my own anymore?
 I was bought with the great, great price—
 Your blood—the greatest sacrifice!

6. Days, weeks, years have flown by apace,
 Wasted in bemoaning my case.
 The end is near, then soon You'll appear.
 Am I precious, Lord, enough for You to steal?

7. Through the years, there's longing deep within
 That, in all that we experience,
 With enjoyments, dealings—You'd lead us all—
 To perfect growth, till we're mature in full!
