Scriptures for Singing

The musical score is written in a single system with ten staves. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats) and the time signature is common time (C). The melody is written on a treble clef staff. Chord symbols are placed above the staff at various intervals. The lyrics are written below the staff, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The score is divided into a main body of verses and a chorus. The chorus is marked with a box labeled 'Chorus' at the beginning of the line.
