

Only Love Prevails

Scriptures for Singing

(Guitar)

1. If I speak in tongues of men And an-gels that are heav-en sent, To treasure gifts this child en-joyed
With-out love I on-ly pass As clang-ing cym-bals and sounding brass; To give a sound, yet life de-void.
If by proph-e-cy I'd share, Mys-t'ries sag-es would de-clare,
All my knowledge won't com-pare to love; For on-ly love pre-ails.
Chorus
(C) Love, love, love pre-ails. Whether tongues will cease or knowl-edge fails, We know in part what will be un-veiled. God is love, and on-ly love preails. Love pre-ails, On-ly Love pre-ails.

2. If my faith makes mountains move,
And loveless works my power prove,
Would it ever mean a thing?
If I dole out all I own
To feed the hungry in lands unknown,
Would my boast a profit bring?
Love is patient; love is kind;
Jealous boasting, love declines.
On account of evil love is blind,
For only love prevails.
