Scriptures for Singing

G	B	C	G
1. If I speak in tongues of men	And an-gels that are heaven sent,	To treasure gifts this child enjoyed

G	B	C	G
Without love I only pass	As clanging cymbals and sounding brass;	To give a sound, yet life devoid.
Em	A⁷	D	D⁷

If by prophecy I'd share,	Myst'ries sag-es would de-clare,
Em	Am⁷	C	D	G
All my knowl-edge won't compare to love;	For on-ly love pre-vails.
G	D	Em	C
(C) Love, love, love prevails. Whether tongues will cease or	knowledge fails,	We
G	Dm⁷	C	Am
know in part what will be un-veiled.	God is love, and on-ly love	prevails. Love prevails,	On-ly Love prevails.

2. If my faith makes mountains move,
And loveless works my power prove,
Would it ever mean a thing?
If I dole out all I own
To feed the hungry in lands unknown,
Would my boast a profit bring?
Love is patient; love is kind;
Jealous boasting, love declines.
On account of evil love is blind,
For only love prevails.
