

The Greatest of These is Love

Longings — For Love

1. Pur-sue love as the great - est vir - tue; Be - hold the most ex - cellent way.
Where talents and gifts will fail you, Love nev - er falls a - way.
What nul - li - fies na - t'ral jeal - ous - y And quells all our sel - fish pride?
Of all of the vir - tues on - ly Three a - bide:
Chorus
(C) Hope will reap what faith be - lieves, But love en - joys what these re - ceive. Of vir - tues that we par - take of, The great - est of these is love.

2. One counting another's failures,
Unwritten yet in the mind,
Uncovering one's behavior,
Forgetting that love is blind.
Exchanges provoke us easily
When short of the loving cure.
When filled with divine love then we see
Love endures.
