

In, In, In

Experience of Christ — Abiding in Him

(Guitar: Capo 3)

1. One of the last things that the Son said, Be - fore He died and rose up from the dead,
 2. He spoke of go - ing and re - turn - ing. He'd send the Spir - it (whom we al - ready knew).

Chorus
 Was that He'd go pre - pare a place for us, That where He is we too could be. (C) He said:
 He said He would not leave us or - phans, Be - cause He lives we would live too.

"In my Fa - ther... In Me... In you, In that day you'll know I'm in my Fa - ther, you're in Me And I am in you." you."

Interlude
 God be - came a man just like you and me. Lived a hu - man life, oh, so perfectly.
 Died an all - in - clu - sive death And then He rose up to be - come the all - in - clu - sive, Com - pound, life - giv - ing, in - dwell - ing Spir - it. Then breath - ing in - to His dis - ci - ples. He told them, Re - ceive ye the Ho - ly Breath".
 This the ful - fill - ment of what He had spo - ken, "In that day I will be in you."

Chorus Stanza 3 and Chorus

3. So now today we're coinhering.
 We dwell in Him, and He is dwelling in us.
 We're in the sweet incorporation of God and man, how glorious!
