

For He Grew Up Like A Tender Plant (Isaiah 53)

Scriptures for Singing

The musical score is written in G minor (three flats) and common time. It features a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The score is divided into sections: an Intro (measures 1-6), a Verse (measures 18-28), and a Countermelody (measures 35-47). The lyrics are: "For He grew up like a tender plant before Him, And like a root out of dry ground. No attracting form that we should look up on Him, Nor appearance that we should desire Him. Like one from whom men hide their faces, He was despised; and we did not esteem Him. Smitten of God and afflicted. And by His stripes we have been healed. We all like sheep have gone astray; Each one has turned to his own way, But He will see the fruit of resurrection, And He will be satisfied." The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.

Intro

For He grew up like a ten - der plant be - fore Him, And like a root out of dry ground. No at - trac - ting form that we should look up - on Him, Nor ap - pear - ance that we should de - sire Him.

Verse

Like one from whom men hide their fac - es, He was de - spised; and we did not es - teem Him. Smit - ten of God and af - flict - ed. And by His stripes we have been healed.

Countermelody

We all like sheep have gone as - tray;
Each one has turned to his own way,
But He will see the fruit of re - sur - rec - tion, And He will be sat - is - fied.
