

Blending is the Way

The Church — Her Building

(Guitar: Capo 3)

|                              |                               |                          |                                    |
|------------------------------|-------------------------------|--------------------------|------------------------------------|
| D                            | A                             | Bm                       | D                                  |
| We have come from many       | plac-es, Dif-ferent           | fac - es, dif-ferent     | rac - es, Yet the                  |
| G                            | D                             | Em                       | A                                  |
| Lord has brought the man - y | in - to one-ness won-drously! | Vis-it - - ing           | our dear saints                    |
| A                            | Bm                            | D                        | G                                  |
| else - where                 | O - - pens wide our in - ward | view;                    | Fellowshipping in the Bod-         |
| D                            | Em                            | A                        | D                                  |
| - y, Ev-ery - thing          | be - comes so new.            | No more nar-row, no more | pri - vate, No se-                 |
| G                            | A                             | D                        | Bm                                 |
| clud - ed path we take.      | Har - mo - nized and          | vi - tal - ized,         | Tem-pered, blend - ed for His      |
| D                            | G                             | A <sup>sus4</sup>        | A                                  |
| sake,                        | Till no long - er I,          | but Christ.              |                                    |
| D                            | A                             | Bm                       | F#m                                |
| (C) Blending is the way,     | Take the cross                | each day,                | By the Spir - it, for the Bod - y, |
| G                            | A                             | D                        | A                                  |
| Blending is the way.         | Blending is the way,          | Meet-ing in His name,    |                                    |
| G                            | D                             | G                        | A                                  |
| Touched by all the saints,   | Blend - ing                   | all                      | the way.                           |
| G                            | A                             | F#m                      | F#                                 |
| Burn-ing in our spir - it,   | Fer - vent when we pray,      | Blend-ing more each      |                                    |
| D                            | G                             | A                        | D                                  |
| day                          | Till He comes                 | a - gain!                |                                    |
| D                            | A                             | Bm                       | F#m                                |
| (C) Blending is the way,     | Take the cross                | each day,                | By the Spir - it, for the Bod - y, |
| G                            | A                             | D                        | A                                  |
| Blending is the way.         | Blending is the way,          | Meet-ing in His name,    |                                    |
| G                            | D                             | G                        | A                                  |
| Touched by all the saints,   | Blend - ing                   | all                      | the way.                           |