I take Thy promise, Lord, in all its length (New Tune)

Experience of Christ—Trusting Him

Experience of Christ—Trusting Him						575
(Guitar: Capo
D	D ^{maj7}	G		Α	A ⁷
1. I take T	'hy prom-ise, Lord,	in all its length,	And breadth and	ful-ness, as	my dai - ly	y strength;
D	D ^{maj7}	G	Α	A ⁷	D G	D
In-to life's fu-ture fear-less I may gaze, For, Sav-ior, Thou art with me all the days.
2. Days may be coming fraught with loss and change, New scenes surround my life and fancies strange; I thank Thee that no day can ever break, Savior, when Thou wilt leave me or forsake.
		3. There may be days of dark When sin has power to ten Yet in the darkest day I w For, 'mid the shadows, The	npt, and care to press, ill not fear,
		4. Days there may be of joy a When earth seems fairest, Then draw me closer to Th Elsewhere, my Savior, tha	and her skies most brig nee, lest I rest	ght,
		5. And all the other days that Marked by no special joy o Days filled with quiet duti Burdens too small for othe	r grief or strife, es, trivial care,
		6. Spend Thou these days wi So shall the darkest hour Then when these earthly y Let me be with Thee in the	with glory shine. vears have passed away			