

Low in the grave He lay
Praise of the Lord — His Resurrection

123

(Guitar: Capo 3)

G                    C                    G                    D                    G                    C                    G                    A                    D

1. Low in the grave He lay— Je - sus my Sav - ior! Wait - ing the com-ing day— Je - sus my Lord!

G                    C                    G                    C                    G                    C                    G                    Em

(C) Up from the grave He arose,                    With a might - y tri-umph o'er His foes                    He a-

Am                    D                    Em                    C                    G                    C                    A                    D                    D<sup>7</sup>

rose a Vic - tor from the dark do - main, And He lives for - ev - er with His saints to reign. He arose!                    He arose!                    Hal - le - lu - jah! Christ a - rose!

G                    G<sup>7</sup>                    C                    Am                    G                    D<sup>7</sup>                    G                    C                    G

2. Vainly they watch His bed—
    Jesus, my Savior!
    Vainly they seal the dead—
    Jesus my Lord!

3. Death cannot keep his prey—
    Jesus, my Savior!
    He tore the bars away—
    Jesus my Lord!