long Be - fore we hail that wedding morning And lift up the glad new song.

2. Oh, let us now redeem each moment,
More the precious oil to buy,
And have our vessels filled with ointment
Ere we hear the midnight cry.

3. Oh, what a joy it is preparing
For our wedding with the Lord,
E'en in the tribulations sharing
For the bliss of such reward!

4. Oh, with what rapture and rejoicing
Shall the wedding day begin;
And then a thousand years of dining
At the marriage feast with Him!
