

It is God's intent and pleasure

Experience of Christ — As the Indwelling One

538

The musical score is written in G major and 3/4 time. It consists of four staves of music. The first staff begins with the lyrics '1. It is God's intent and pleasure To have Christ revealed in'. The second staff continues with 'me, Nothing outward as religion, But His Christ within to'. The third staff is marked 'Chorus' and begins with 'be. (C) It is God's intent and pleasure That His Christ be wrought in'. The fourth staff concludes with 'me; Nothing outwardly performing, But His Christ my all to be.' Chord symbols are placed above and below the notes to indicate the harmonic structure.

2. It is God's intent and pleasure
That His Christ may live in me;
Nothing as an outward practice,
But Christ working inwardly.
3. It is God's intent and pleasure
That His Christ be formed in me;
Not the outward forms to follow,
But Christ growing inwardly.
4. It is God's intent and pleasure
That His Christ make home in me;
Not just outwardly to serve Him,
But Christ dwelling inwardly.
5. It is God's intent and pleasure
That His Christ my hope may be;
It is not objective glory,
But 'tis Christ subjectively.
6. It is God's intent and pleasure
That His Christ be all in me;
Nothing outwardly possessing,
But His Christ eternally.
