1. Lord,	day	by	day	I	view	Thy	won -	drous	Cross	On	Cal -	va -	ry!
G	D<sup>7</sup>	G	C	G	C	G	D<sup>7</sup>	G
And	day	by	day	I	stretch	my	hands	there	-	on	And	die	with	Thee.

2. I "glory in the Cross" most loving Lord,
Because I know
It is the power to save and satisfy,
Where'er I go.
3. The daily Cross becomes the deepest joy,
For just beyond
The Cross, I clearly see how Cross and Crown
Do correspond.
4. Oh, gracious Lord, how sweet to take from Thee
The daily Cross!
And know that I can never separate
Its gain and loss.
5. The daily Cross is daily loss to all
That keeps from Thee;
The daily Cross is daily gain of all
Thou art for me.
