1. Je - sus from the tomb has come, Death to Him could do no harm;
Com - fort - ed let us re - main, And to - geth - er praise His name.
Now re - demp - tion's work is done, All His foes He's o - ver - come.
Once for all our sins He bore, Now He'll suf - fer nev - er - more.

2. Hades, boulder, soldiers 'round,
None could harm or hold Him down;
Though He briefly suffered pain,
I eternal blessing gain.
He Who died must die no more,
Satan's scheming days are o'er;
Empty tomb is all we see,
Soon all graves shall empty be.

3. From the grain of wheat that died,
Many grains were multiplied;
He no more alone abides,
All the church is at His side.
As His Body, with our Head,
To the heavens we ascend;
With Him buried, with Him soar,
Praise His name forevermore.
