1. Sav - ior, se - lect my path - way; Choose it, dear Lord, for me.
 You have or - dained my path - way, How - ev - er hard it be;

5 I have no oth - er long - ing, On - ly Thy will I'd seek.
 Lord, for Your heart's good plea - sure, I'd fol - low will - ing - ly.

10 Chorus
 (C) Please now up - hold my hand, Lord— You know my weak - ness - es;
 Else can I on - ly sor - row, Un - cer - tain how to live.
 If You'll up - hold my hand, Lord, What - ev - er path You chart,
 What - ev - er way or time, Lord, 'Tis sweet - est to my heart.

2. Whether 'tis smooth or rugged,
 If it is but Your choice,
 It has my full consent, Lord;
 None other will suffice.
 I could not dare to choose, Lord,
 Though You would give me rein;
 Lord, do select my pathway—
 Your wish is my command.
3. My time is in Your hands, Lord,
 No matter fast or slow.
 I don't have any preference;
 Schedule me as You will.
 If You would teach me patience,
 Daily or year by year,
 I wouldn't wish Your hinderance
 Swiftly to disappear.

4. Here is my life's remainder—
 Do with it as You please;
 Though there be joy or anguish,
 I'd let You reign in me.
 Every distress is precious
 When I can see Your face;
 Every delight is loathsome
 If it's without Your grace.
5. Lord, do select my pathway,
 Though I be hale or ill,
 Whether through tears or laughter,
 Slander or fame Your will.
 Work of whatever size, Lord—
 I would let You decide;
 This only would I prize, Lord:
 That You be glorified.
