2. Though the gifts are many,
Yet the Spirit one;
Many too the functions,
But one Lord, the Son.

3. Each, the others needing,
Must impartial be;
Each his place possesses
And utility.

4. By our grace are measured
Gifts both large and small;
Each with sober judgment
Takes his place with all.

5. Each fulfills his duty,
Shows his usefulness,
Fervent in the spirit,
Girt with faithfulness.

6. Knitting and supplying,
Bearing much in grace;
Not a trace of discord,
Christ is giv'n His place.

7. We, the Church, His Body,
He, the Head, the Son;
By the Spirit's flowing,
We are joined in one.
