

Let Us Rise Up and Build

The Church — The Lord's Recovery

1. Let Your ear, Lord, be at - ten - tive, And Your eyes o - pen to hear The pray - er of Your ser - vant Which ech - oes Your own will. E - ven when the king ap - proached me I turned to You in prayer. I an - swered in Your wis - dom; Now I will go and build. Chorus (C) Let us rise up and build And strength - en our hands for the work. The God of heav - en Him - self will make us pros - per.
Lord, we have set our will, We will en - ter in Your work.

2. All the walls are crushed and broken,
And the gates once burned with fire,
But we will not be discouraged,
Our spirits never tire.
Let the enemy oppose us;
We will fight and build our part.
To God this is our memorial;
Remember, Lord, my heart!

3. Now the walls are high and mighty;
All our foes, they shake in fear.
The people return and they gather
God's Holy Word to hear.
We may mourn and weep in sorrow,
But our God wants us to feast.
Come in, eat the fat, drink the sweet wine!
O Lord, we're blessing Thee!
