

It is Jehovah's lovingkindness

Scriptures for Singing

(Guitar: Capo 3)

|                |     |                 |                        |                |                    |                       |
|----------------|-----|-----------------|------------------------|----------------|--------------------|-----------------------|
| D              |     |                 |                        |                | A                  |                       |
| It             | is  | Je - ho - vah's |                        |                | lov-ingkind - ness |                       |
| A              |     |                 | A <sup>7</sup>         |                | D                  |                       |
| That           | we  | are not         | con - sumed,           | We             | are not            | con - sumed,          |
| D              |     |                 | D <sup>7</sup>         |                | Em                 |                       |
| For            | His | compas - sions  |                        |                | do not fail;       |                       |
| Em             |     | A               | A <sup>7</sup>         |                | D                  |                       |
| They           | are | new             | ev - - ery morn - ing; | Great          | is Your            | faith - ful - ness.   |
| D <sup>7</sup> |     | G               |                        | A              |                    | D                     |
| Sat - is - fy  | us  | in              | the morn - ing         | With           | Your               | lov - ing-kind - ness |
| D <sup>7</sup> |     | G               |                        | A              |                    | D                     |
| That           | we  | may             | give a ring - ing      | And            | re-joyce           | all our days.         |
| D <sup>7</sup> |     | G               |                        | A              |                    | D                     |
| Sat - is - fy  | us  | in              | the morn - ing         | With           | Your               | lov - ing-kind - ness |
| D <sup>7</sup> |     | G               |                        | A <sup>7</sup> |                    | D                     |
| That           | we  | may             | give a ring - ing      | And            | rejoyce            | all our days.         |