

There is a resurrection

The Resurrection Life—General

Musical score for the hymn "There is a resurrection". The score is in 2/4 time and B-flat major. It consists of four staves of music with lyrics underneath. The first staff (measures 1-8) has lyrics: "1. If there is no re - sur - rec - tion, God would be God of the dead;". The second staff (measures 9-17) has lyrics: "Christ Him - self would not be liv - ing, N'er have been raised from the dead.". The third staff (measures 18-25) is labeled "Chorus" and has lyrics: "(C) But there is a re - sur - rec - tion Which is the vi - tal - i - ty,". The fourth staff (measures 26-32) has lyrics: "Both the life pulse and the life - - line With - in God's e - con - o - my.".

1. If there is no re - sur - rec - tion, God would be God of the dead;
Christ Him - self would not be liv - ing, N'er have been raised from the dead.
Chorus
(C) But there is a re - sur - rec - tion Which is the vi - tal - i - ty,
Both the life pulse and the life - - line With - in God's e - con - o - my.

2. If there is no resurrection,
Christ a Savior dead would be,
Not the One Who lives forever,
Who can save most utterly.

3. If there is no resurrection,
Christ a Savior dead would be,
Not the One Who lives forever,
Who can save most utterly.

4. If there is no resurrection
Life imparting would be stayed.
And so would regeneration
With renewing pass away.

5. If there is no resurrection,
Then whatever would there be?
There would be no transformation,
Nor to Christ conformity.

6. If there is no resurrection,
Where the members of the Christ?
There to Him would be no Body,
Which His fullness is in life.

7. If there is no resurrection
Then the church would n'er have been,
Which is both to Christ His dear bride
And to God the one new man.

8. If there is no resurrection
Then would God's economy,
With the voiding of His purpose,
In collapse fall totally.
