

I Have Learned a Lesson Now
Principles on How to Be a Proper Human Being — General

The image shows a musical score for the hymn "I Have Learned a Lesson Now". It consists of three staves of music in treble clef, with a common time signature (C). The melody is written on the top line of each staff, and the lyrics are written below the notes. Chord symbols (C, G, F, Am) are placed above the notes. The lyrics are: "I have learned a lesson now; God knows the best for me. So let us thank our Lord above, How ever things may be." The score is divided into three measures by bar lines. The first measure contains the first two lines of music, the second measure contains the next two lines, and the third measure contains the final line of music. The lyrics are aligned with the notes: "I have learned a lesson now; God" on the first line, "knows the best for me. So let us thank our" on the second line, and "Lord above, How ever things may be." on the third line.
