Chorus

2. But there still remains a shadow;
Christ is still not satisfied.
He must have a growing garden
To become His loving Bride!
3. Paradise of pomegranates,
Pleasant fruits, and henna flowers,
Spikenard, saffron, myrrh, and aloes:
His enjoyment now—not ours.
4. He has come into His garden,
Gathered myrrh and spices there,
Eaten honeycomb and honey;
Wine and milk He'll drink fore'er.
5. From the garden comes the city,
All materials thus supplied;
God is satisfied completely,
And the foe is terrified.
6. "Thou art fair, my love, as Tirzah,
Comely as Jerusalem."
O Lord Jesus, Hallelujah,
Thou wilt do it all! Amen!
