1. What great pro - vi - sion God has made In Je - sus' death on Cal - va - ry!
I hung with Him up - on the tree, And in His tomb I too was laid.

And how shall I who died to sin
Continue still to live therein,
The victor living as the slave?
3. At God's right hand He took His place,
And while for saints my Savior pleads,
My heart for sinners intercedes
That they might know His saving grace.
4. Oh, what a name to me is given—
A son of God, by second birth!
I represent Him on the earth,
He represents me now in heaven.
5. As Jesus dwells beyond the skies,
I dwell within this world of strife;
And as He lives within my life,
In Him I'm in the heavenlies!
